BOLTON ORCHARD HEATER

The Bolton Orchard Heater is the result of many years of experiment and experience. Today it stands without a peer. It pioneered and blazed the way to fortune for many a disheartened grower. With its simple devices for perfecting and regulating combustion, for deflecting the flame and for the gathering and burning of soot, it has reached the highest state of efficiency and practicability.

The Bolton Orchard Heater has an almost perfect combustion, and on a filling of oil will generate as great a heat as is possible in an open burning pot. Many authorities contend that smoke is of benefit, and we agree inasmuch as the smoke acts as a blanket and retains the heat, and at sunrise prevents immediate thaw. No oil consuming device of the open type can be operated without creating ample smoke for the purpose necessary, but the vital element is the heat immediately generated to hold the temperature at the point of safety against a sudden fall.

We have a large supply of these Heaters on hand. Our prices are Factory Prices.

Pretty Spring Party

Mrs. D. B. Provocat, who is the guest of Mrs. H. W. Higbie, was the motif for a delightful gathering Tuesday afternoon, planned by her hostess.

At this season, Mrs. Higbie's beautiful bulb gardens are in bloom, and the yard was gorgeous with color, while the house was beautifully decorated with bowls of the white flowering peach and the pink of the orchard peach. The latter were prunings from a neighbor's orchard, the guests were all informed, as the hostess is an ardent member of the Out-door Art League, one of whose tenets is not to despoil fruit trees.

The chief feature of the afternoon's entertainment was an "English Whist Drive," at which five tables participated. At the close of the games, attractive prizes were awarded.

The ladies were quite mystified upon receiving very dainty flowered cards, the two leaves fastened together by the outspread wings of a tiny butterfly, which, when opened, disclosed the news that Mrs. Higbie was to leave about May 1st for New York, from which port she would sail for a two-months Mediterranean trip, visiting Constanza, Constantinople, Athens, Rome, Genoa, Palermo and Gibraltar. Mrs. Provocat will remain until Mrs. Higbie leaves, and they will travel together as far as New York.

There were a number of ladies present from both San Jose and Campbell, and of these, Mrs. F. V. Campbell, Mrs. Ellis Jenkinson and Miss Gertrude Rossiter, assisted at various times during the afternoon.

Flower Show

Out in the Cambrian district, the children are all busy and happy. One can see the children all digging and planting, getting ready for some great event, you feel sure. Upon inquiry, we are told it is a flower show, to be given in May, under the auspices of the Cambrian P. T. A.

The committee in charge have secured the promise of some exceptionally fine prizes.

The Grange at its last meeting voted to give $2.00 to be applied toward a prize from that organization.

J. D. Blaine has promised a prize that will make the heart of any winner glad. H. C. Smith will give a very suitable gift for a boy or girl.

Other prizes have been promised by the Cambrian P. T. A., the C. H. Whitman Hardware store and the Farmers' Union store. There are one or two additional prizes which will be announced later.

The prizes will be awarded as follows: Annuals—First and second prizes for best collection.

Perennials—Best Collection.

Bulb Plants—Finest Blossoms.

Potted Plants—Best Plant.

Roses—Best Roses.

Wild Flowers—Largest Collection.

Pressed Wild Flowers—Largest and Best Assortment, with care as to Name and Arrangement.

Every child in the district should pick out the class he wishes to work for, and if he is not already busy, get busy.

The Important Third

Pause at the show window on the grocery side.

Note the artistic simplicity of the display.

Read, on the neat sign, the wording:

"Cluff String Beans are stringless—

You'll be glad of that!"

Consider that for every "square meal" are three necessary items:

Protein—meat, eggs, eggs, or milk—for muscle building;

Carbohydrates and fats—starches and sweets, oils or butter—for energy; and Succulent vegetable—any wholesome green thing—for health.

That "something green" is the important third—too often overlooked.

Now, open a can of Cluff String Beans (stringless) for tomorrow's dinner.

You'll find them surprisingly good

—a change delightfully welcome.

It'll be 20c well spent.

Order to-day.

DEL NORTE SOON WILL BE OPENED

Construction of Breakwater At Crescent City to Benefit
Wild Region

San Francisco.—Nature's last coast wilderness stronghold, Del Norte county, is to be opened to settlement and industry by the erection of a breakwater at Crescent City, the outpost of civilization in Northwestern California. Government engineers March 4 approved a contract for the building of a $200,000 breakwater a third of a mile long at Crescent City, a small lumber port, a short distance north of the little Klamath river.

The people of the community raised the necessary funds for the work and are expecting Congress to make an appropriation of about $500,000 more to continue the harbor work. When the breakwater is finished Crescent City folk expect to make their town a great shipping point for timber, tungsten, copper and agricultural products.

At present Del Norte county, of which Crescent City is the port, is a trackless forest in the main, exactly as it was a hundred years ago.

"You can go for a hundred miles," said William B. Arndt, who has secured the rock contract on the breakwater, "and not see a trail or a sign of a human being, even an Indian. The woods are full of game and the streams are full of fish. The nearest railroad is a hundred miles. Pack trains are used to transport supplies to the frontiersmen. The few flour mills send their product out on mule back."

"But a settler can have his stuff delivered by mail, though he live fifty miles off the beaten track. The rural mail carrier goes everywhere. At the port is a beautiful crescent-shaped beach which could rival any California bathing resort. The back country is one of limitless resources. The country has scarcely been explored by white men. The Indians roam about. The hardy settlers are waging constant fights to keep the coyotes from devouring their sheep."

"There is one small lumber wharf or pier at Crescent City. Another lumber company has a dock a few miles north; the concern will probably ship from Crescent City as soon as our little rockbound harbor is sufficiently protected by the breakwater, work on which will start next month. Roads are few and rough. During the war the Government built a road to some tungsten deposits. These and copper claims can be made to pay as soon as there is available transportation. The building of a harbor will open up one of the romantic frontier regions of the old West."

DR. HENRY WELLS HORN OF S. F. DIES

San Francisco.—Dr. Henry Wells Horn, prominent San Francisco ear, nose and throat specialist, well known in social and club circles and husband of Mrs. Ella Gardner Horn, died Friday, March 5, at the St. Francis Hospital of an illness which he contracted a year ago on war service. He held the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel in the medical research department of the United States aviation branch.

A native of San Francisco and 49 years old, Dr. Horn was a graduate of the University of California and of the Stanford Medical School. He attained such distinction in the study of complaints of the ear, nose and throat that for three years he was assistant professor on these subjects at the University of Bonn, in Germany. Afterward he spent a year in the ambulatory division for speech defects at the University of Berlin. In Vienna also he worked with many of the most distinguished medical men of Europe. He was a member of the San Francisco Medical Society, the American Medical Society, the American College of Surgeons and many foreign medical organizations; and among the clubs with which he was connected were the University, the Olympic and the Bohemian.

Dr. Horn's marriage to Miss Ella Gardner, daughter of I. Wellington Gardner and wife of Los Angeles, was solemnized in October, 1917. Besides his wife, who is staying at the Fairmont Hotel, he is survived by his sister, Mrs. Gertrude Atherton, the novelist, and his brother, William P. Horn of the Pacific Union Club.

Psychology of It
"How do you like your new neighbors?"
"All right. The first thing they did was to borrow our lawn-mower."
"Have they returned it?"
"Not yet, and I hope they'll keep it. Then they'll be careful not to use it early in the morning or at any hour when it would attract my attention unduly."

NO PARTY TIES IN MAY PRIMARY

You May Register as a Democrat
and Call for a Republican Ticket

Sacramento.—Voters at the California Presidential preference primary election May 4 may choose their ballot at the polls regardless of party affiliation made at the time of registration, according to a statement by J. M. Cremin, election expert in the office of Secretary of State Frank C. Jordan.

Cremin quoted from opinions by Attorney-General U. S. Webb and Lieutenant-Governor C. C. Young, author of the primary election act, and said his statement was intended to correct what seemed to be a widespread belief that when a voter "declined to state" his party affiliations when registering he would be barred at the polls from using a party ballot.

"If a citizen declines to state his party affiliation when registering he is not barred from voting at the Presidential primary election," Cremin said. "An elector may register Republican, Democrat, Socialist, Independent, Non-Partisan or any other and at the primary he may vote an entirely different ticket, just so long as he designates the party name of the ticket he desires to vote in signing the roster in the election booth."

Cremin quoted as follows from a digest of the election law compiled by the Secretary of State and Attorney-General:

"At the May Presidential primary election an elector otherwise qualified to vote is entitled to vote the ticket of that political party the name of which he has at said election written on the roster and declared as aforesaid, notwithstanding the fact his affidavit of registration contains the name of the same or a different political party or does not contain the name of any political party and notwithstanding the fact that when registering he failed or declined to state the name of any political party with which he intended to affiliate."

ESTATE OF THEODORE ROOSEVELT SHOWS $727,713

Minneapolis, N. Y.—The State of New York will receive $8891 as an inheritance tax from the estate of the late Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, according to the report of James N. Gehrig, State inheritance tax appraiser, filed here March 6.

The official transfer tax appraisal shows that the former President left an estate worth $727,713 after all expenses and debts had been deducted. The total value of the estate was placed at $781,082, divided between $630,107 personal and $150,975 real property.

Colonel Roosevelt's widow has a life interest in the estate placed at $724,763, the remainder being divided between the children, with the exception of Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, as her father in his will said that she had been amply provided for previously.

CLAIM DRUGGISTS ARE USING A POOR GRADE OF WHISKEY

New York.—Action toward the establishment of Federal agencies for selling whiskey on prescription was requested of United States Senators Calder and Wadsworth and all the Brooklyn Congressmen in letters sent them March 6 by United States Attorney Ross of Brooklyn. This action followed complaints received by the District Attorney's office that druggists were selling a poor grade of whiskey at high prices. John F. Kramer, prohibition commissioner, had informed him, Ross wrote, that he could not establish such stations without statutory authority.

OTHERWISE HE WAS A PRETTY GOOD HUSBAND

San Francisco.—Joseph C. Macer, machinist, was entered as a candidate for the "hard-boiled" husband championship, when Mrs. Edith M. Macer filed suit against him in the Superior Court for divorce on cruelty grounds. She says he kept her in a continual state of terror by slamming doors; that he threw a pot of boiling coffee on her, kicked the stove to pieces, tore a door into splinters, slept all the time with a pistol under his pillow, loaded a shotgun and threatened to kill her because she visited another woman, and told her if she ever attempted to escape from him he would hunt her down and kill her. They were married in 1915 and have a son 5 years old.

San Francisco.—Mrs. Luella Maria Shaefer, 1337 Oakland street, told Superior Judge Bernard J. Flood that although she already had a husband she was compelled to marry Arthur Herman Shaefer, clerk at the Hotel Kern, last December because he carried a pistol and a bottle of acid and threatened to disfigure her for life if she did not become his bride. She had known Shaefer only two weeks, she said. The name of her first husband, to whom she was married at Portland, Oregon, in 1917, was Northup. Judge Flood annulled her marriage to Shaefer.

Donahue, 23 years old, 129 Duboce avenue, a clerk employed at the Postoffice, went to his room and fired a bullet into his temple. Donahue died on the way to the Central Emergency Hospital. Jamison, a piano solo by Mrs. Russell Ford, and a Chinese solo dance executed by Miss Margaret Cox. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Chester Cox at Oak and Standley streets. Mrs. Benson Edwards assisted in receiving and entertaining. Masses of almond blossoms formed a pretty decorative scheme. Tea was served at small tables.

San Francisco.—The police have been asked to look for Miss Mary Thomas, 24 years old, who left her home at 1853 Green street to go to work Thursday evening, March 4, and has not been seen since. Her disappearance was reported by Mrs. Fred Bunch of 1019 Vallejo street, who says the young woman was employed as an usher in the Tivoli Theater. She is described as being of medium height, with brown eyes and brown hair, and wore a straw sport hat and brown checkered suit on the day she disappeared.

San Bernardino.—One hundred and forty-four bottles of real beer were stolen from the City Jail here Friday night, March 5. The beer was held in evidence against an alleged bootlegger. It was stacked in a cell. Ingenious persons patiently fished it out, bottle by bottle, using a long wire with a loop on the end. City detectives were able to understand that much from the circumstances, but were unable to tell what happened after that.

Santa Cruz.—Mrs. A. A. Cheney, who was struck by an Ocean Shore train several weeks ago and who has been suffering from a broken back and other injuries, died March 4 at a sanatorium. Mrs. Cheney was a well-known resident of Garfield Park. She was deaf and with her pet dog was strolling near her home alongside the track. The dog went on the track and, not knowing the train was backing, she was struck by the engine as she was reaching for her pet.

San Francisco.—Mrs. Catherine Riley, for fifty years a resident of California, who died Wednesday, March 3, was buried March 6 in Holy Cross Cemetery. Scores of friends attended the funeral which was held from St. Ignatius Church, where a requiem mass was celebrated. She came to California fifty years ago, and for many years was active in club and church circles, as well as in philanthropic work. Mrs. Riley was the widow of the late Patrick Riley and is survived by two sons, John A. and Martin P. Riley, and three daughters, Mrs. Catherine Hannon, Mrs. Nellie Scudder and Mrs. Josephine Linehan.

Long Beach.—Horace E. Hand, said to be a son of a former Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, was arrested here March 6 charged with embezzling $8000 from the California Shipbuilding Company, by which he was employed as an accountant. He was lodged in the city jail. Hand is married.

She lost an eye and suffered other permanent injuries.

Palo Alto.—Quite the most interesting and surprising announcement of the year in Palo Alto social circles was that of the betrothal of Miss Katherine Sheldon to William Armstrong Mudgett of Boston, Mass. The secret, which has been concealed from even the inner circle of friends of the bride-elect, was revealed on Tuesday afternoon, March 2, at bridge tea given by Misses Ruth and Helen Squire. Corsage bouquets of violets were distributed to the guests as favors, to each of which was attached a tiny card bearing the intertwined names of the affianced couple.

San Rafael.—Joe Rossi, charged with killing B. Marcelli, employed by Rossi as a charcoal burner in Ignacio, is wanted for murder committed in Italy, according to information received by Sheriff J. J. Keating. The man will be delivered to the Italian authorities, Keating said, upon demand of the Italian Consul in San Francisco. Fresno.—The California Associated Raisin Company will no longer make sales on a "firm at opening price." This announcement was made by F. A. Seymour, assistant to the president of the company, following his return from a two months' trip to the Eastern cities in the interests of the raisin company here. The firm at opening feature was one of the points assailed by the jobbers and independent packers in their campaign against the California Associated Raisin Company, and the association decision to abandon this policy was received with interest by local fruit men here.

San Francisco.—Miss Margaret Black, daughter of Mrs. Charles A. Black of Oakland and a well-known member of the younger smart set, March 6 became the bride of G. C. Reis, newly appointed passenger agent for the Pacific Mail Steamship Company at Shanghai and a part owner of the vast real estate holdings of the Reis estate at Hunter's Point. The marriage was a sudden affair and was not divulged until just before the departure of the Pacific Mail steamship Colombia at 1 o'clock, when Reis left to assume his new duties in the Orient.

San Francisco.—When Lawton Kelly, 1245 Octavia street, told Superior Judge Thomas F. Graham that Mrs. Drucella Kelly, whom he charged with cruelty, insisted that he go to dancing classes, the judge ruled it was no more cruel for a wife to demand that her husband learn well the intricate steps of the modern dance than it would be for the husband to trample on her feet if he danced poorly. Kelly said she really wanted him to go alone as an excuse to be rid of him. He said she continually made home life disagreeable and caused him to sleep with one eye open by taking a file to bed with which she assured him she intended to stab him while he slept.

How Squirrels Earned and Continue to Earn Right to Live and Rejoice in Life.

"In creating the squirrel family nature performed one of her most gracious and beneficent acts," writes Arthur F. Rice in an article on "Four-Footed Folk" in Boys' Life. "She made the striped squirrel for the very small boy, the red squirrel for the larger boy and the gray squirrel for the big boy from fifteen to seventy years of age, and threw in flying squirrels and black squirrels and fox squirrels as an evidence of her generous disposition to please everybody. She decorated the stumps and mossy rocks with tiny, beautiful forms and added picturesque life to the rail fences and stone walls with a charming race of busy little creatures whose graceful motions and interesting habits contribute much to the entertainment of all mankind."

"It was in the eternal fitness of things that the squirrels should do something for nature in return for the gift of a joyous existence; so they set about helping her to plant her garden. The chipmunks buried beechnuts and chestnuts and acorns in the ground, and thus did their part in the scheme of scientific forestry. The red squirrels dropped hazelnuts, butternuts, cherry stones and pine cones along the walls and fences and straightway there sprang up along these avenues of squirrel travel fruitful shrubs and lusty trees where other squirrels find a feast, where the birds build their nests and under which the cattle enjoy a grateful shade. So the squirrels earned, and continued to earn the right to live and to rejoice in life."

Graphic Chart Shows That Human Life Appeared Late in the Quaternary Period

A geologist, writing to the Scientific American, describes by means of a graphic chart the comparative lengths of the different periods of the age of the earth. He places the age of the earth arbitrarily at 72,000,000 years, represented by a clock dial of 24 hours—3,000,000 years to each hour.

On the above basis the first six hours of the clock represents Azolic time, the earliest conjectural period of the earth's formation—18,000,000 years; the next six hours Eozoic and the next eight Paleozoic time—18,000,000 and 24,000,000 years, respectively—periods of mineral and vegetable formations. In the next three hours animal life developed—Mesozoic time, 9,000,000 years—that is, from the twentieth to the twenty-third hour. Thus the last hour of the 24—3,000,000 years of geologic time—represents Neozoic time, which includes the appearance of human life in the Quaternary period.

This last division of the 24 hours, the Quaternary period, is shown as only 10 minutes—in other words, 500,000 years. The existence of human life on the earth, therefore, bears the same relation to the age of the earth as 10 minutes does to 24 hours. But since the period of written history is estimated roughly at only 6,000 years, this last division is not shown on the chart, since it would only be 12 seconds in duration.

THE MIDDLE AGE

Our youth began with tears and sighs,
With seeking what we could not find;
Our verses were all threnodies,
In elegiac still we whined;
Our ears were deaf, our eyes were blind,
We sought, and knew not what we sought.
We marvel, now we look behind;
Life's more amusing than we thought!

Oh, foolish youth, untimely wise!
Oh, phantoms of the sickly mind!
What? not content with seas and skies,
With rainy clouds and southern wind,
With common cares and faces kind,
With pains and joys each morning brought?
Ah, old and worn, and tired we find
Life's more amusing than we thought!

Though youth "turns spectre-thin and dies,"
To mourn for youth we're not inclined;
We set our souls on salmon flies,
We whistle where we once repined,
Confound the woes of humankind!
By heaven we're "well deceived," I wot;
Who hum contented and resigned,
"Life's more amusing than we thought!"

ENVOY.
O nate mecum, worn and lined
Our faces show, but that is naught;
Our hearts are young 'neath wrinkled
rind;
Life's more amusing than we thought.
—Andrew Lang.

Big Men Who Are Unusually Bright Are in the Minority

It is generally accepted that great development of the powers of the brain is usually accompanied by only moderate animal or physical life. In those cases where high development of both is found, it is emphatically marked by shortness of existence or defective vitality in the structures of organic life and low organization. Mental celebrities of large stature have been in a noticeable minority, and the standard of health very low; in fact, according to John o' London's Weekly, from Alfred the Great to Schiller the physical defects have been painfully apparent, and the roll of deathless names seems to be the list of a gathering of invalids and cripples.

BURBANK BUSY ON 71ST BIRTHDAY

Wizard Says He Can Accomplish Much More Now Than He Could at Age of 25

San Francisco.—Luther Burbank, world renowned horticulture scientist, was 71 years old March 7. He upsets the Osler theory entirely, for he says "I find I can accomplish more at 71 than I did at 25."

And here is a birthday wish from Burbank to the world:
"My strongest wish is that a hungry, war-torn world may find peace and plenty."

Burbank seemed to have little time to think of a birthday when seen at his Santa Rosa home. He was busily at work in the gardens which enclose his vine-clad home.

"Never busier in my life," was his reply to an inquiry. "Once in a while he was interrupted momentarily to take a hurried glance at some birthday congratulation or other that had come over the wire. Such messages from men of prominence the world over began to arrive yesterday. He and Mrs. Burbank smiled again and again as each message was received.

"Makes a man feel good to realize that he has friends everywhere," he remarked.

The main celebration of Burbank's birthday in Santa Rosa will take place on May day, when his creations will be depicted in spectacular form in a colorful pageant. "Sun Worshippers," in which several hundred young folks will appear.

"What do you consider your major triumph of the past year?" the Wizard was asked.

"Quality wheat was undoubtedly the most useful to the world. It has found much favor in Australia, Canada and the great wheat growing sections of this country and other parts of the world, as shown by the many inquiries concerning it this season."

Here are a few intimate facts concerning Burbank and his life and way of thinking, which heretofore had not been told by his biographers:

Burbank was born just before midnight, March 7, 1849, in Lancaster, Massachusetts, and was the fifteenth of fifteen children.

Mrs. Burbank says that while he may have been the fifteenth of fifteen children, he has been ahead of time ever since.

When he was 16 years of age, though rather frail and slender, he commenced work in Court Mills, Worcester, Mass., as a wood turner for the Ames Plow Company. He received three dollars per week, working ten hours per day, and as his board bill was three and a half dollars per week, for several months he found himself fifty cents in arrears each week. For fifty-five years, since 1865, he has worked on an average more than ten hours each calendar day at earnest, hard physical and mental work, and today, during three months of the year, he is obliged to walk each day not less than fifteen to twenty-one by actual test miles, overseeing and helping in his work, which is still intense, both physical and mental.

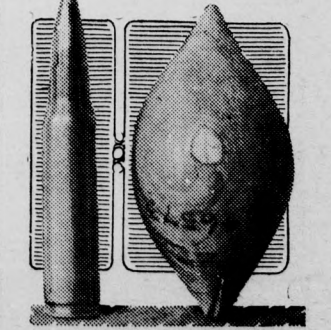

But in all these fifty-five years he has never drunk a glass of liquor of any kind, and has never used tobacco in any form, has always retired early and risen very early in the morning, and can accomplish far more now at 71, than he could at 25.

Burbank says hard, steady work does not injure any one. Late hours, dissipation and laziness do. He is temperate, also, in eating, preferring plain food in small amounts; meat, eggs, fruit and vegetables, the same as other people eat, and his hours of sleep average six of the twenty-four.

He says the game of life is a splendid one, if you play fair, but if you quarrel, balk, buck, shirk, grunt, growl, fuss, gouge, sneak and cheat, the best of the game is lost forever.

PREHISTORIC MEN KNEW RIFLE BULLET PRINCIPLE

San Francisco.—That the prehistoric savage understood the principle of the modern rifle projectile is indicated by the recent discovery by the United States Marines in Guam of stones so shaped that, no matter how thrown, they would whirl and strike sharp end first. The photo shows this ancient parentage of the army rifle bullet.

Oh, My, No!
"Let us preserve our traditions at all costs!" cried the orator.
"But not in alcohol," interposed the prohibitionist.—Home Sector.

STOP! CALOMEL IS QUICKSILVER

It's mercury! Attacks the bones salivates and makes you sick.

There's no reason why a person should take sickening, salivating calomel when a few cents buys a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone—a perfect substitute for calomel.

It is a pleasant, vegetable liquid which will start your liver just as surely as calomel, but it doesn't make you sick and cannot salivate.

Children and grown folks can take Dodson's Liver Tone, because it is perfectly harmless.

Calomel is a dangerous drug. It is mercury and attacks your bones. Take a dose of nasty calomel today and you will feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone instead and you will wake up feeling great. No more biliousness, constipation, sluggishness, headache, coated tongue or sour stomach.

Your druggist says if you don't find Dodson's Liver Tone acts better than horrible calomel your money is waiting for you.—Adv.

THE HAPPY WARRIOR

There grew upon a hillside fair
A mullein tall and straight;
A sentinel it seemed to stand,
In lonely, silent state.
The grazing cattle spared its stalk,
To crop more humble weed,
And left it in its ripe old age,
Unharmful to go to seed.

And long it stood, the mullein
straight,
The shadows came, the shadows went,
It did not seem to care.
When dew and rain refreshing fell,
With thanks it seemed to dine.
And when the skies withheld their showers
It did not droop nor pine.

Through autumn days it flourished on.
This mullein sentinel;
Though summer comrades soon were gone.
And leaves about it fell.
And when the white flakes covered all
The grass of sunny hill.
It stood on guard above the snow.
A cheerful soldier still.
—Blanche Elizabeth Wade, in New York Times.

IN MY GARDEN
Now are the dreary days
Of iron ground,
Of dead gray stalks heaped up
In a dismal mound;
While through the naked hedges blow Fierce winds that rock them to and fro.

There's nothing left to do—
The beds are bare;
Idly I walk around—
Peer here and there,
And watch a screaming jay flash by—
A jewel in the lowering sky.

It's a long time to wait
Until the day
When the first spikes come up
Of green-gray,
Filled with a wondrous new life-tide,
To push the frost-bound earth aside.

Though my dear garden lies
All flat and dead,
So late a lovely dream,
Like a dream fled,
Through the dark months of winter
chill
Its rainbow charm lies with me still.
—Ethel Wolf in New York World.

A Sight for Sore Eyes Charlie and his three sisters had been to visit a relative in the country. Though the invitation had only been for a week, their stay was gradually lengthened to a month. In fact, the uncle was beginning to fear it was going to be a permanent infection. But eventually they went.
"Well," asked the father upon the return of his offspring, "was your uncle glad to see you?"
Charlie's face lit up with delight
at the question.

"Glad!" he echoed. "Uncle glad!"
Why, dad, he wanted to know why we didn't bring you, mother, the maid, the cat, the canary and the goldfish!"—Tit-Bits.

NOTICE

No. 14672

Trea u y Department

Office of the Comptroller of the Currency

Washington, D. C., January 9, 1920.

Whereas, by satisfactory evidence presented to the undersigned, it has been made to appear that The Growers National Bank of Campbell,
in the town of Campbell, in the County of Santa Clara, and State of California, has complied with all the provisions of the Statutes of the United States required to be complied with before an association shall be authorized to commence the business of banking;

Now, therefore, I, John Skelton Williams, Comptroller of the Currency, do hereby certify
that The Growers National Bank of Campbell,
in the town of Campbell, in the County of Santa Clara, and State of California, is authorized to commence the business of banking, as provided in Section fifty-one hundred and sixty-nine of the Revised Statutes of the United States.

In Testimony whereof, witness my hand and Seal of office, this 14th day of January, 1920.
[Seal] JNO. SKELTON WILLIAMS,
Comptroller of the Currency.

Last Pub. Mar. 20, 1920.

Quality Stationery, at Smith's.

Will We Light Up?

The Campbell Improvement Club has made another big step in improving the town by instituting an adequate lighting district.

The original boundary plans were altered, leaving out Hamilton and Johnson avenues, thereby reducing the number of lights to 25.

On the basis of an assessed valuation of over $300,000 it is estimated that the lighting tax will be between 18 cents and 20 cents per $100 assessment.

The petition for the supervisors to call an election to form such lighting district has been presented to the Board which has called for a hearing on April 12th.

Earned His Stripes

This community was very much surprised when the word was passed around that John F. Duncan had been elected to the vice presidency of the Garden City Bank and Trust Company.
He began his duties in San Jose Wednesday. This advancement is in recognition of Mr. Duncan's business ability, which has been so thoroughly demonstrated at the local branch since taken over by the San Jose concern, its business being practically doubled.
Mr. Duncan has meant a great deal to local business circles, and although his move will take him to headquarters daily, he is to have charge of all the branch banks, and will be in constant touch with the local institution. Much as we dislike to see him transferred, we extend our congratulations, and wish him the best.

George Davis At Rest

Mrs. C. H. Whitman has just received word of the death of her son, George Allen Davis, who passed away of pneumonia, in Vancouver, B. C.

As soon as the United States declared war in 1917, George offered his services to the Government, but being over age, he was not accepted. He immediately enlisted in the Canadian army and entered a training camp at Victoria. He belonged to the 5th Battalion of Engineers. The demand for Canadian soldiers was so great that the boys in camp had but a short time to wait before they were transferred to England, when with but a few months' preparation, they were hurried into active service in French territory. During the summer of 1917 and on through the early winter, he was engaged with the transportation division of the engineering corps, which brought him into close touch with the real activities of the front lines. He was then transferred to duty with a surveying party, which carried him almost the entire length of the western line.

In the spring of 1918, because of great exposure in wet weather, George suffered from a severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism, and after a short stay in a French hospital, was sent to a hospital in England. Soon after the armistice was signed, he was returned to Victoria, Canada, but on account of his continued rheumatism, was not discharged, but placed in a hospital in Victoria.

He was finally discharged from hospital and army and given a place in the government school for ex soldiers at Vancouver, where he took a course in mechanical drawing. He had about finished his course, when he was stricken with pneumonia, and passed suddenly away.

While in service George was wounded, though not severely, yet was entitled to wear a wound s rip. He had sent his mother, among treasured so-venirs an autograph letter from King George of England, dated at Buckingham palace, expressing gratitude for faithful service rendered; wishing God speed and a safe return home, with an early restoration to health; also a solid silver medal, presented in behalf of the King and the Empire for services rendered.
The Press extends its sympathy to the bereaved relatives.

The Johnson Avenue Club will be at home to the various women's clubs of Campbell and vicinity on next Thursday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. H.
W. Higbie. Her yard is one of the beautiful spots of the valley at this season with its hundreds of rare hyacinths, tulips and lilies. Invitations are being sent to the Country Woman's Club, Pundita Circle N. & S. Club, We and Our Neighbors, Home and School Club and the Cambrian P. T. A., and members of these clubs will enjoy a real local convention from two to five o'clock. This will be held if the weather is clear.

Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their community. The sparrow pest is always with us as a constant reminder that life is not all sweetness. It is a continual struggle; when it isn't one thing, it's two. That's the way with sparrows, in twos and multiples of two. They are the pest of gardeners, fruit men and townspeople, being no respectors of persons or places. With the present rapid rate of increase the authorities will soon have to be paying bounty for their destruction. Now is the nesting time and by destroying eggs and nests you may help the gardens and keep down the prices. Get your share of them but be sure they are sparrows as other birds are protected by law with heavy fines.

The American Relief Administration has devised a very effective means of providing food for your friends and relatives in the famine stricken districts of Europe. This is by what is known as a food draft.
This draft can be purchased at your bank and is a sure and safe guarantee that the food designated on the face of the draft will be delivered to the proper person in Poland, Austria, Hungary, Czechoslovakia or Germany. These countries have endorsed this relief measure and the plan is in effect. This affords an opportunity for anyone to help a distressed community with his own money direct and gives him the satisfaction that every cent of his expenditure has gone for the good cause.

times, the Junior Class will hold its party at the home Miss Violet Lannis this evening. The affair will be chaperoned by the class advisor.

Mrs. Edith Copeland Brown was here
the first of the week the guest of Mrs.

following the flu, he is in a very weak condition. His many friends have been very solicitous during the past week,
and the encouraging news will be welcomed.

St. Patrick's Tea a Grand Success

Many were the exclamations of surprise and pleasure as the ladies, singly, in pairs and groups of half a dozen or more, continued to arrive at the spacious home of Mrs. C. W. Toles, Wednesday afternoon.

Such a gathering of ladies exclusively,
for a social event, has seldom, if ever,
been witnessed in our village, and every one seemingly, had come with a feeling of sociability, and enjoyed a thoroughly pleasant afternoon. A cursory count gave the number present as well over eighty-five.

A varied program of musical numbers,
all of which were thoroughly enjoyed and elicited much praise, included piano solos by Patricia Smith, of the Cambrian school; charming Irish songs and lullabys by Mrs. L. J. Carboni and Mrs.
Warren Shelly, and two selections by the boys' band. Mrs. W. H. Crothers also brought some Irish souvenirs and portfolios of views, which proved of much interest.

Mrs. Harry Ewing, of San Jose, president of the Sixth District Congress of Mothers, was present and gave in brief
some of the best things that will be presented at the annual convention of the association which will be held in San Jose, April 5-6, and extended an invitation to all the ladies to attend the sessions, whether members of the P. T.
A., or not.

The committee in charge of the refreshments had arranged things as daintily and artistically as for any elaborate party in their own homes, and to their work is due the great success of that feature of the afternoon.

Daintily appointed tables, beautiful with bowls of jonquils, and presided over by a number of the club members, were set in the large breakfast room
with its charming conservatory adjoining.

The receipts for the afternoon were $17.00 from which expenses must be deducted and the per capita tax of 15 cents for each member, which pays the dues to the district, state and national organizations, the first object for which the social was planned.

The sincere appreciation of the club is extended to those, both non-members and members, who helped by their efforts or presence toward the success of the day.

Pundita Circle

Nearly a score of members of the Pundita Circle, of Campbell, and several visitors assembled at the lovely home of Mrs. E. La Montagne, of Union avenue, March 10, to renew the meetings,
which were interrupted by the influenza
epidemic.

Although a "day in Ireland" had been planned, the travelogue gave place to a farewell reception in honor of Mrs. W.
M. Nelson, the president of the Circle,
as she is moving to Yuba City soon.

A beautiful bouquet was presented by Mrs. I. P. Beal on behalf of the Circle to Mrs. Nelson, and a quilt made by the ladies will shortly be finished and sent to her at her new home.

A short program followed the business meeting:

Mrs. H. Williams recited "A Grandmother Story," by Geo. W. Ogden, in Irish dialect, which was warmly applauded. She responded with a short, witty Irish piece, of the "Pat and Mike" variety. Mrs. L. Carboni sang "Come Back to Erin," in her sweetly charming manner, and being encored, gave "A Minstrel Boy," (an Old Irish Air.)

A happy social time ensued, delightfully augmented by dainty refreshments of fruit salad and wafers, coffee and delicious sandwiches, served by the charming hostess, Mrs. La Montagne.

The next meeting will be held March 24, at the home of Mrs. C. W. Toles, in Campbell, assisted by Mrs. L. J. Carboni, who will take up the subject, California and California Missions.

Mrs. G. S. Peterson and Miss Clara were up from Monterey as week-end guests of Mrs. M. Wade.

Y. M. C. A. Meeting At Morgan Hill

The third monthly leaders' meeting of the leaders of the County Y. M. C. A. groups was held at Morgan Hill, Friday night, at the Friendly Inn. A very delicious dinner was served by the ladies of Morgan Hill. The effort of these women is highly appreciated by every leader who was present. During the dinner every man told where he was from and what he was doing, thus making each one acquainted with every other man,
and giving a general view of the county work.

This meeting was perhaps the best of the meetings of this nature thus far held outside of San Jose, a fact that gave an atmosphere of individuality and uniqueness to the occasion. So effective was this meeting at Morgan Hill, that before the meeting broke up, the delegation from Mountain View requested that the next meeting be held in Mountain View.
The date for the next meeting is April 9, at 7 o'clock p. m. The exact place for the dinner will be announced later.

Mr. Fred Bohman, of Campbell, presented a talk on personality versus equipment. Mr. Bohman showed the many ways in which he, without any material equipment, succeeds in holding and stimulating the interest of his boys week after week. Of all leaders in the county of younger boys' groups, Mr.
Bohman stands easily foremost among the leaders. He is a fine example of the power of personality. He is an eloquent testimony to the contention which is the core of the County Y. M. C. A., i. e., that real investment for the good of young boys is not an equipment, but is personality. Boys will follow a leader.
Boys need a leader. And nature's leaders are not dependant on edifices of brick and stone, nor on the paraphernalia of gymnasiums for their supremacy.
